THE GAMBLING FRATERNITY IN DISTRESS-COM-ING MEETINGS AND CONVENTIONS-GREATER NEW-YORK PEOPLE AT THE HOTELS.

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., July 13 (Special).—J. sterling Morton, of Nebraska, Mr. Cleveland's Secretary of Agriculture, who has been a Saratoga visitor this week, is of the opinion that this would be a capital place to hold the Democratic National Convention in June, 1896. While he is a Western man, he believes in rotation and concedes that Sara-the second annual convention of the New-York State Bankers' Association, at the Grand Union Hotel, on Wednesday and Thursday.

The association made the best use of its time on The closing session lasted from 10:30 o'clock in the morning till 2:45 o'clock in the afternoon. Immediately after dinner the bankers and their wives and daughters went to Mount Mc-Gregor and the Saratoga Monument at Schuylerille. At Yaddo, the Union-ave. country seat of Trask, the New-York banker, they were entertained at tea between 5 and 7, and at 8:30 o'clock in the evening they sat down to their annual anquet in the Grand Union Hotel ballroom.

Dinners have been in order here this week. At the United States Hotel on Tuesday afternoon a implimentary dinner was given to Bishops Quinrd, Scarborough, Perry and Walker, who are passing their midsummer leisure here, and several ed guests, including ladies, sixteen covers being laid. The givers of the entertainment were Hiram Tompkins, William B. Gage and Dr. John L. Perry. On Wednesday one of the party invited the Bishops and gentlemen to a breakfast at Saratoga Lake. His wife quietly informed the ladies, and they suddenly appeared on the scene at the lake and surprised to no small degree her husband and his dis-tinguished guests. As it turned out, the Saratoga take breakfast was rendered additionally attractive by the fair reinforcements. The National Confectioners' Association held its weifth annual meeting here on Tuesday and Wednesday, and a large number of the delegates are still in town and will remain here several days. principal object of this association, besides havg a leisurely good time, is to secure legislation in several States in favor of pure-candy laws and ferreting out of adulterations. Such laws have een passed in seventeen States.

The pharisaical members of the gambling fra-arnity are in sore distress, as they are beginning to fad out that the laws are enforced and that this summer resort is no longer controlled by them. Village President Charles H. Sturges's ultimatum to the Board of Police Commissioners means exectly what he said—that gambling must not exist that the Commissioners do not enforce the and that if the Commissioners do not enforce the laws he will promptly prefer charges against them and have them removed. The beneficial effect of the village president's ultimatum is already ap-parent, much to the satisfaction of law-abiding Lovers of aquatic sports will gather here in force next week to witness the Saratoga Lake annual regatta of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen. It will take place on Wednesday and Thursday. The participants will include some of the best amateur rowing talent in the United States and Canada, and the races wil' undoubtedly he hotly contested.

One week from to-day the Saratoga Association will begin its forty-day summer meeting of run-ning races. The track is in perfect condition. Five or more races will be given each day and they

WHEELING ABOUT RHINEBECK.

THE FINE ROADS ARE AN ATTRACTION-PER-

SONAL NOTES. Rhinebeck, N. Y., July 13 (Special).-The unus ally fine roads about here are attractive to wheelmen. The famous Iron Ore Road, which runs along the west bank of the Hudson from here, north to Tivoli-on-Hudson, and the Hyde Park road, which leads south to Poughkeepsie, are familiar to all cyclers who have "done" this section. It is no wonder, then, that there are so many enthusiastic wheelmen here. Among those seen daily on their wheels, none are better riders than Colonel and Mrs. John Jacob Astor. Robert B. Suckley is also fond of the exercise. A. Lee Wager, Miss Marion Wager and the Rev. E. C. Saunders, rector of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Messiah, are also lovers of bleyeling.

ON THE MOUNTAIN TOP AT PAXINOSA INN. Easton, Penn., July 13 (Special).—The mountain season has fairly opened, and the hundred guests at Paxinosa are enjoying the beautiful scenery and invigorating breezes to the utmost. The last week has been so cool that fires were necessary in the open hearths, and steam heat was turned on. The elevated situation of the inn, and its exposure to all breezes make it healthful and delightful the season through. The inn being on the very crest of the mountain commands extended landscapes on all sides, and is reached by wagon road, but most consides, and is reached by wagon road, but most conveniently by the electric railway which skirts the mountain side 600 feet above the Delaware River until it attains the summit, then, cutting over to the north side, runs back to the inn, affording a splendid opportunity to see the vast stretch of country between the Weygat Mountain and the Blue Ridge, sixteen miles away. The view off to the west extends forty miles. The views from the inn magazes are still more attractive.

WALKS ABOUT WEST POINT.

A BEAUTIFUL PANORAMA VIEWED FROM OLD FORT PUTNAM-SOME OF THE VISITORS.

West Point, N. Y., July 13 (Special).-The week has been a dull one at the post. In camp the regu-lar routine of duties and pleasure goes on as usual. One night there is a hop, the next a serenade, and so it goes. Drills, guard mounts and dress parades follow in quick succession during the day. The afternoons are usually given up to quiet strolls through Flirtation Walk. When the hotel plazza becomes tiresome there is nothing more refresh-ing than a stroll through Flirtation or a visit to desired Fort Putnam is just the place. The view from Fort Putnam is one of the finest in the coun-try. As one stands on the ruined battlements and looks northward, the broad Hudson is seen winding its way between the giant hills that form the northern gateway. Cro' Nest and Storm King loom up on the left. Break Neck or Turk's Head is on the right. The ruins of old fortifications are still to be seen on the tops of those hills. The river after rounding the point and passing through the gateway expands itself into Newburg Bay. Polli pell's Island lies like a speck on the bosom of the water. Beyond Newburg the Catskill Mountains and Shawangunk Range are to be seen meiting into the horizon. Looking east, the blue hills of Connecticut rise clear and bold. Southward agair stretches the river below Peekskill and Haverstraw Bay. Along both banks magnificent and costly summer residences have been erected. Osborne's Castle, perched away up near the top of Sugar Loaf, is the most conspicuous. John M. Toucey's, Samuel Sloan's, Hamilton Fish's and a score of other modern palaces grace the east side, while J. Pierpont Morgan's, John Bigelow's, Major Roe's and Arthur Pell's are the most conspicuous on the west side.

GRATEFUL-COMFORTING. EPPS'S COCOA BREAKFAST-SUPPER.—"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a caraful application of the fine properties of well-selected occoa, Mr. Epps ass provided for our breakfast and supper a delicately finavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladles are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gasette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half-pound tims by Grocers, labelled thus: JAMES EPPS & Co., Ltd., Homogopathic Chemists, London, England.

DIVERSIONS AT WATCH HILL.

BAD WEATHER INTERFERED SOMEWHAT WITH THE PLEASURES, BUT THERE WERE MANY ARRIVALS.

Watch Hill, July 13 (Special).—The weather at this charming resort has not been propitious for thorough enjoyment, one or two days being exceptional. Notwithstanding the drawback in this direction, there has been a large influx of visitors at the ho tels, the arrivals being from nearly every State During pleasant weather yachting and driving are prime features of amusement to the dwellers at the

The women of the Misquamicut (Indian for Watch Hill) Golf Club recently gave a reception to their friends, which was a decided success. The Saturday afternoon teas given weekly are also a popular feat-

The steamer Continental, from New-Haven, brought an excursion of 500 people to the Hill during the week. The steamer Summer Girl, with 200 people from Noank for the Hill, went aground on Osbrook Point Thursday night. The steamer Martna took the people off, carried them to the Hill, and subsequently home. The Summer Girl was floated the following morning without damage.

There is need of electricity for lighting purposes at Watch Hill. The Improvement Society should consider this metter and take some action.

The slovenly way in which the Government is having its dumpings from the dredging floats emptled into Little Narragansett Bay is creating much comment. With the variable tides of the bay much of the mud will be floated back where it will all have to be dredged over again.

Among the arrivals for the week at the Larkin House are the following: Mr. and Mrs. William P. Stewart, Miss Corline A. Stewart, Wignia Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Kaplan, Samuel C. Van Dusen, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Shannon, W. P. Shannon, Jr. H. H. Stannon, Lelia Shannon, W. P. Knowles, of New-York, Mrs. F. H. Masruder, Miss Natalie Magruder, Mrs. B. MILITIA WEEK IN RHODE ISLAND.

ENCAMPMENT AT QUONSET POINT-THE PROVI-DENCE MAYORALTY CAMPAIGN.

Providence, R. I., July 13 (Special).-This is militia week in this State. The brigade of Rhode Island militia has been in camp all the week at the new State camp grounds on Quonset Point, below Wickford. The fact that the new camp grounds are located at a place quite remote from the city or any centre of population is considered by millor any centre of population is considered by mini-tary men to be an advantage, as the minds of the soldiers will be occupied more with the real work of the camp than with the social features which were made so prominent at Oakland Beach. Never-theless there has been considerable sport in camp. It is considered that it has been a profitable week from the military point of view. Friday was the big day of the encampment. Governor Lippitt and his staff were present and reviewed the troops. A reception was held afterward by the Governor at brigade headquarters. The Governor's staff this year combine military knowledge with the social functions. Under the recent amendments to the Military law all persons elected or appointed to functions. Under the recent amendments to the Military law all persons elected or appointed to commission offices under the rank of brigadiergeneral are obliged to pass examination on the tacties. Governor Lippitt's staff is the first to be affected by this law.

The running race meeting which has been in progress at Narragansett Park for several weeks was brought to a close to-day. The meeting has been successful, and has been devoid of many of the objectionable features which marred the initial meeting here last year.

Indications point to some warm contests in the coming municipal campaign. It is said that Mayor Olney is a candidate for re-election, and no candidate has been mentioned in opposition as yet. The principal fights will occur on the election of members to the City Council. It is announced that exattorncy-General Robert W. Burbank is a candidate for Alderman in the Second Ward, and examayor Charles Sydney Smith is announced for Alderman in the Seventh Ward. There promises to be an unusually spirited contest in the Sixth Ward, where ex-Alderman Myron W. Fuller will again attempt to secure an election to the Board.

The three-cornered tract of land opposite the City Hall on Washington-st. has been leased for ninety-nine years to L. A. Tillinghast, who is to erect a large building to cover the entire lot, and which possibly may be used for a hotel. The location is directly facing the entrance to the new railway station.

Plans for the new Public Library Building, at the corner of Washington and Greene sts., are being made under new conditions. More land having been purchased, the building will be considerably larger and of a different character than was originally intended. It is hoped that ground will be broken this fall.

The new Fire Commissioners are putting in considerable work in reorganizing and improving the Fire Department, especially with the end of having better discipline. Three of the captains were transferred this week.

President Otis, of the New-Jersey Whist League, and a member of the New-York Whist Club is giving lessons in the game of Cavendish and Pole. Mayor Strong used to take a hand at a rubber in the Spring House of an evening, but he says now that the Richfield whist players are getting to be too clever for him.

BRYN MAWR AMUSEMENTS. Bryn Mawr, Penn., July 13 (Special).-The intense heat which has prevailed in the city the past few days has served to drive many people to this charm-ing resort. On Saturday afternoon the Bryn Mawr baseball nine played a game of ball with the wait-ers, several of whom are ex-Cuban Giants. The cers, several of whom are ex-Cuban Giants. The score was 21 to 8 in favor of the Bryn Mawrs.

The regular semi-weekly balls held on Saturday and Tuesday evenings were a success in every particular, and the large attendance attested their popularity.

The Bryn Mawr, being nearly the centre of the club district, has assured its success as the head-quarters for club meets. The Philadelphia Country Club, the Merion Cricket Club and the Radnor Hunt Club can all be reached by short drives over the finest roads in the country.

The English cricketers, who are to play at the Merion Club in the fall, have engaged rooms at the Bryn Mawr, and will arrive early in September.

Among the recent errivals at the Bryn Mawr are Professor S. S. Sanford, of Yale, and Miss Sanford, of New-York; Robert Bage Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. K. Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. A. Archer Reed, of New-York.

Lake Hopatcong, N. J., July 13 (Special).-A full moon at Hopateong means a merry time. The steam launch Breslin has been in demand for moon-light parties, and all the small craft on the lake have been pressed into service. The weather, although somewhat erratic in its constant changes, has been delightful here. Mr. King, manager of the Hotel Breslin, has welcomed many of his old Tampa Bay Hotel guests to Hopatcong's green-clad shores during the week, and is making the Breslin one of the most successful of this season's hotels. Eppin-ger's orchestra, that has been attached to this house many years, gives morning concerts every day, and plays sprightly dance music at night. Fishing was never better in Hopatcong than now. A dozen better discipline. Three of the captains were transferred this week.

CRISP WEATHER AT RICHFIELD SPRINGS.

Richfield Springs, N. Y., July 13 (Special).—Since the fall of 30 degrees in the temperature early in the week the weather here has been delightfully crisp and cool. If October could be introduced into the middle of a New-York July it would be a famous piece of news to New-Yorkers; that is exactly what they find in Richfield now. Hundreds of them, too, are taking advantage of it, beginning with the Mayor and going on through ranks of solid city business men to the fashionable people of both sexes who spend the summer here.

Besides Mayor Strong, Mrs. Strong and their son there are such other representative New-Yorkers here as W. S. Elias, F. C. Barrios, A. Raymond, ex-Commodore Charles W. Hogan, of the Brooklyn Yacht Club; C. W. Iden, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Mulford, W. J. Cousins, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Mulford, W. J. Cousins, Mr. and Mrs. John Ditmag, jr., of Brooklyn; W. Van Tassell, F. S. Howard and Mr. and Mrs. George C. Chase.

Mayor Strong brought a handsome carriage and pair up with him. Horseback and driving parties to Cooperstown and Lake Canadaigua are popular, with morning concerts at the hotels, Sunday evening musicals, croquet and tennis parties and bowling matches. There seems to be a sort of reunion of the Strong family in progress in Richfield. Mr. and Mrs. William R. Strong, of New-York, arrived with Miss
